DETAILED ACTION

In response to RCE/Amendments/Remarks filed 04/20//2010. The current patent application originally filed 03/30/2004, (by Ricoh).

- Claims 1-9, 11, 13-27, 29-39, 41, 43-47, 49-56, 58, 60-64, and 66-67 are pending.
- Claims 1, 21, 34, 44, 51, and 61 are independent claims.
- Claims 1, 21-23, 31, 34-35, 44-46, 51-52, and 61 are amended.
- Claims 10, 12, 28, 40, 42, 48, 57, 59, 65 and 68-69 are canceled.
- Claims 3, 7-8, 11, 16, 19-20, 26-27, 30, 32-33, 43, 50, 60, and 67 were original.
- Claims 2, 4-6, 9, 13-15, 17-18, 24-25, 29, 36-39, 41, 47, 49, 53-56, 58, 62-64, and 66 were previously presented.

Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 04/20/2010 has been entered.

Allowable Subject Matter

The prior art made of record:

- US 20060143567A1, Chiu, et al, Continuation of 09/584,205, Filed 05/31/2000,
- US 20070106932A1, Coar, Continuation of 09/533,152, Filed 03/23/2000,

- ❖ Claim(s) 1-9, 11, 13-27, 29-39, 41, 43-47, 49-56, 58, 60-64, and 66-67 are allowed:

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Interpreting the claims in light of the specification, Examiner finds the claimed invention is patentably distinct from the prior art of record, which set forth in the followings:

- Chiu teaches the video recordings of meetings and scanned paper documents that come out of a meeting into electronic documents. These can be placed on the Internet for easy access, with links generated between them by matching scanned documents to a segment of the video referencing the scanned document. (@ the Abstract and @ Col. 2 Lines 15-60).
- Coar discloses the contents of the package will be stored unchanged from their original format (other than to use compression methods to minimize the overall size of the package), in order to allow the original native application that created the object to again be used to interact and manipulate the object (@ the Abstract and @ Para [0037]. Also Coar further discloses an electronic file that may be used to store any type of object such as an image, document, database, or any computer generated file including word processing, database, EDI or any other type of file. If the user so desires, applications may be created to convert documents into other formats such as converting a MS-Word document into an Adobe Acrobat (PDF file) prior to the document being added to the VirPack (@ Para [0069].

Under the broadest reasonable interpretation of the claimed limitation which is consistence with the Applicant's Specification. The prior art cited above fails to teach all of the Applicant's claimed limitation. In particularly, the claimed invention advantageously provides a finer level of detail that enables the accessing recorded information such as AUDIO and visual information recorded during a presentation of the presentation material, then applying an optical character recognition (OCR) to produce recognized text/notes/visual feature, and comparing the OCR determined text to the audio of the recorded information to determine a portion of the recorded information that matches the OCR determined text [see the current amended claims 1, 21, 34, 44, 51 and 61 and the remarks dated 04/20/2010 @ Page 17.

The Examiner asserts that the claims overcome the prior art of record as describes above when the limitations are read in combination with the respective claimed limitations in their entirety.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
